

Royal Protect

Royal Protect

“is a beautiful soft tanned semi aniline,
with a silky touch.”

Royal Protect is sourced from a top German tannery. It is produced on best quality western European bull hides, making this a hard wearing leather that is also anti-bacterial. With exceedingly high rubfastness, sunlight fastness and flexing endurance, this leather is perfect for many applications.

Usages would include hotels, restaurants, terraces, public seating, theatres, aged care facilities and residential options.
